More Than Furniture.

Your partner in delivering educational housing success

Today's educational housing isn't one-size-fits-all, and neither are the challenges behind it.

Housing officers must create spaces that feel like home, stand up to daily use, and meet evolving expectations for sustainability and design.

And with every project racing toward move-in day, finding a furniture partner who delivers—on time and without compromise—is essential.

That's where Foliot comes in. With thirty-five years of experience and vertically integrated operations, we bring more than premium furniture—we bring peace of mind.

Our solutions are modular, durable, and thoughtfully crafted to make student living simpler, smarter, and more welcoming.

Move-in day leaves no room for error. With Foliot, you'll be ready, every time.

Made here. Made smart.

Foliot furniture is proudly manufactured in North America, with vertically integrated facilities in Montreal, QC, and Las Vegas, NV. Having domestic operations means shorter lead times, superior quality control, and reduced carbon impact.
